Decision Reached in Paris.

The decision of the American n, which is a flat reversal of the ition previously taken by the memers since the outery over their home-bing began, is understood to have been suched here and is not due to any new ders from Washington. However, it known that the British and French abassadors in the last few days have in instructed to bring pressure to bear plement efforts that Premier Cleau was making personally direc with Washington.

Only yesterday, however, it was re-terated that the Americans would not hange their plans, much as they sym-athised with the French and British swpoint. Their position in clinging to a fixed date when President Wilson kept moving his to meet a similar situation learly was untenable, as the other Goz ernments pointed out.

According to a high authority the change in the plans of the American del-egation is due to the failure of the Gerns to sign the protocol ratifying the

MEXICANS QUICKLY RELEASED BRITISHER

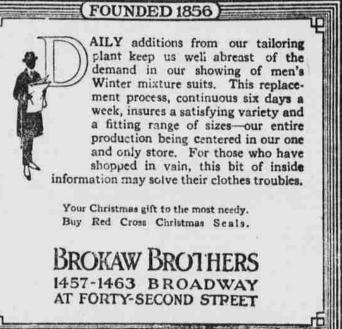

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 .- A new sideight on the general Mexican kidnapping ctuation was given to-day in a report of the recent capture of Norman Rowe, British subject, by rebels at Zacatecas who held him for ransom, but who quickly released him at the instance of the Carranza administration without payment of ransom.

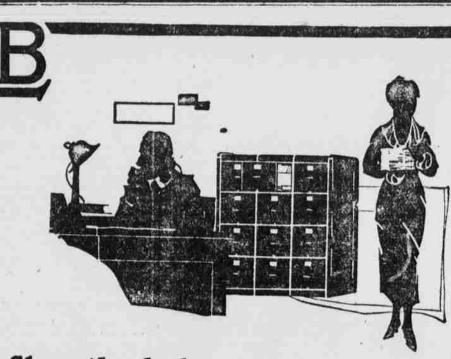

Great Britain never recognized the Carranza regime in Mexico. The British vice-consul at Zacateons promptly noti-fied the Mexican authorities and reported the kidnapping to the British Consulate-General at Mexico City. Representa-tions were quickly made to the Mexican overnment, and within a few hours the machinery, including the military, was ceking to rescue Rowe.

The kidnapping took place at Fres

nillo, a large mining camp at Zacatecas, and in reporting the liberation and reurn of Rowe to Fresnillo the vice-consu State authorities exercised all dili-sence in effecting the liberty of Rowe, and as a matter of justice this should be stated, as everything is due to the efficacy with which the authorities moved in the matter
